Hope you all had a wonderful Easter holiday. With no one home but me and Nana, I had a good time getting in some reading time. I never used to get that much time to myself. I have been trying to read more and to put my time into the writing. The Pocket Book Challenge has been keeping me on my toes. Here is the list for the week. Read the list, review the list, take notes on the list, then post your list. Now, I'll tell you how you can participate in this month's challenge. 1) Follow the instructions on the Free Book Guide. Then read at least one free book and post a review on my own blog. Each week's book will have two reviews. I would love to see your review on your blog, but feel free to tell me about it on my own blog.2) Read at least two books from your list for the week. We're counting books read in the month of April. Be sure to post your list each week. I would love to see your lists.3) Keep up with your list. Look back at the Free Book Guide to see how many books you have read. You'll be doing a great thing for yourself if you read one book a week from the list. I would love to hear from you. Email me at shari-sanderson@googlemail.com or comment on my blog. I'm sure I will be glad to hear from you. About Me I love to read. I love to write.
